OPENING DAY FOR THE 2010 SEASON

June 12/13

MEET THE CONFEDERATE GENERALS

Old Bedford Village is pleased to welcome back a select group of living historians who portray famous Generals from the Civil War. The Generals and their Ladies will be living in the Village all weekend and will be offering audiences with the public to discuss all aspects of their interesting lives, as well as the Confederate history of the Civil War.

June 19/20

CIVIL WAR REENACTMENT

Hundreds of reenactors from the Blue and Grey set up their camps at the Village, bring their horses, cannon and give you an unrivaled opportunity to take a look at life in the 1860s during the civil war. Battles both days. (note: Village closes on Sunday at 4pm)

June 26/27

GUN FIGHT AT THE O.K. CORRAL

We take you back to the days of the Wild West with cowboys, bank raids, gunslingers and crooked poker games. The Old West never looked so good!

July 17/18

1820'S WEEKEND

America is an emerging nation on the world stage in 1820. Visit the Village to see how things are beginning to transition from Colonial times to a more European culture. Living historians from the W.S. Hancock society will be presenting a program over the weekend highlighting fashion, medicine and day to day life of the period.

Aug 7/8

THE 1940s WEEKEND

Come take a look at life in the 1940s during WW2. Reenactors from Allied and Axis powers, military vehicles, extensive home front display. Tactical demonstration both days. An amazing event for those interested in the period.

Aug 14/15

VIETNAM EDUCATIONAL WEEKEND

Following on from the success of this new event last year, the Vietnam Educational Weekend offers our visitors the opportunity to learn about the American military of the period from living historians. Military equipment displays, period military vehicle rides around the site and an opportunity to talk with Vietnam Veterans make for a new perspective on the conflict and the sacrifices made by so many Americans.

Aug 21/22

DRUMS IN THE FOREST: BRADDOCK'S DEFEAT 255TH

This is our special commemorative British, French and Indian War reenactment which we hold every 5th year to mark the 1755 Battle of the Monongahela which took place just outside modern day Pittsburgh, PA. Indians, French and British forces battle both days.

Aug 28/29

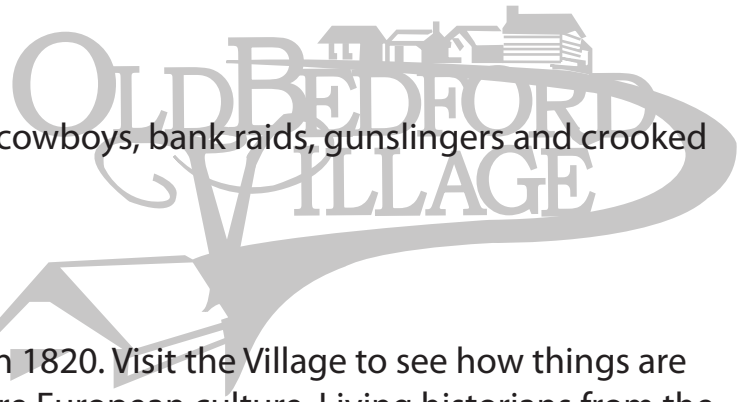

THE CONFEDERATION OF UNION GENERALS WEEKEND

Shake hands with famous Generals from the Union who shaped the outcome of the Civil War. With programs throughout the weekend, these living historians will guide you through the lives of the Generals they represent. Children's programs throughout the day.

Sep 25/26

THE LIBERTY RIFLES COME HOME

The Boys are back in town! Having fought in the Civil War, the local "Liberty Rifles" are returning victorious to Bedford Village this weekend. The local town folk will no doubt be delighted to see them once again to hear about their experiences. A unique opportunity to look into the lives of our ancestors through the medium of living history.
